Helpful Hints

Travel Truths

When visiting Los Alamos on the weekdays, remember our unique little town almost doubles in size as commuters and visitors spend the day with us. During mornings heading into town, and evenings heading out of town, Trinity Drive, Diamond Drive, Central Ave and NM-4 can be very busy. In addition, the lunch hour in downtown is a bustling time, with friends, students, families and coworkers eating together at the local restaurants. Plan ahead to avoid delays.

Tips From the Locals

Spend the morning exploring Bandelier National Monument, then grab a delicious Green Chile Elk Cheeseburger or Indian Taco at the café for lunch. Head up the hill to Los Alamos and swing by the Aquatic Center to pick up putters and balls for the whole family for an afternoon of mini golf at East Park!

New Mexico True Burrito Byway

It should be no surprise that New Mexico claims the invention of the breakfast burrito. It is the wrapped wonder that brings spice to the morning! Join us for breakfast in Los Alamos at Chili Works or Viola's—official stops on the Burrito Byway—and learn the answer to the question: red, green or "Christmas"?

New Mexico True Certified

 When you buy jewelry, textiles, arts and crafts, food, wine, beer and other products with the New Mexico True Certified mark, you know they are authentically "New Mexico True"—made, grown or sourced right here in New Mexico with pride, love and the finest quality ingredients.

Uniquely Los Alamos

Celebrate the importance of fresh, high-quality ingredients at local eateries that tickle your taste buds. Enjoy the warmth and charm of the Blue Window Bistro in downtown Los Alamos for a local atmosphere. Get the best homemade bagels outside of New York at Ruby K's Bagel Café, or grab a sandwich named after a local at Daniel's Café & Mary's Gelato. Add a little science and technology to dinner and experience being waited on by robots at Los Alamos Cantina!

Brews, Cocktails & Wine

Thirsty for a good craft beer? Hang with the locals at Bathtub Row Brewing Co-op! Or stop in at Boese Bros Brewery and grab a green chile grilled cheese sandwich to take next door and eat with your Secret City Manhattan at The Long Pour. Pajarito Brewpub & Grill and Cottonwood on the Greens feature New Mexico beers and wines. Did someone say wine? Reserve a seat at one of Pig+Fig's themed wine dinners!
